

Seismological Research Letters Submission Checklist

Title Page

- 1a Full article title

- 1b Full author list

- 1c Corresponding author indicated and contact information provided

- 1d Conflict of interest statement

Abstract

- 2a Abstract included (300-word limit)

Manuscript Text

- 3a Text is double-spaced

- 3b Document includes continuous line numbering

- 3c Document includes page numbers (incl. even and odd)

- 3d Citations in the text should appear by the name(s) of the author(s), followed by the year of publication in parentheses, e.g., Johnson and Smith (2017)

- 3e Data and Resources section is included following the manuscript text

- 3f Acknowledgments are included following the Data and Resources section

Reference List

- 4a References should be arranged alphabetically by author and should follow the style of examples below.

Hough, S. E., and S. Martin (2002). Magnitude estimates of two large aftershocks of the 16 December 1811 New Madrid earthquake, Bull. Seism. Soc. Am. 92 3259-3268.

Gutenberg, B. (1959). Physics of the Earth's Interior, Academic Press, New York, 111-113.

Laster, S.J., M. M. Backus, and R. Schell (1967). Analog mode studies of the simple refraction problem, in Seismic Refraction Prospecting Albert W. Musgrave (Editor), Society of Exploration Geophysics, Tulsa, Oklahoma, 15-66

Miscellaneous Items

5a Full mailing address for each co-author

5b Complete figure captions list

Figures

6a For initial review, figures may either be embedded or placed at the end of the manuscript. Please do not wrap text around the figure or caption and allow sufficient space between figures and any surrounding text.

6b For accepted articles, submit figures as separate high-resolution files (that is, one figure per file) in either TIFF, JPEG, or high-resolution PDF format. Upload each figure file separately, making sure it does not exceed 10 mb per file.

6c Ensure that all figures are cited/called out sequentially within the manuscript text

Tables

7a Submit tables as separate Word document (.docx or .doc) format files.

7b Include captions above each table

7c Ensure that all tables are cited/called out sequentially within the manuscript text

Appendices

8a If your article has appendices, please ensure that they are labeled and cited with A1, A2, etc. in the main text.

Supplemental Materials

9a If your article has Supplemental Material, submit the file(s) with an optional cover page as described at <http://www.seismosoc.org/publications/esupps/>.

9b Add a one-sentence description of the supplemental material to the Data and Resources section of your article using the following format: "Supplemental Material for this article includes ..."

Article Type

- 10a Check that you have selected the proper Article Type in Editorial Manager (e.g., Regular Article, special section article, etc.)

