

2023 Call for Nomination – Due Date May 15th 2023
JESUIT SEISMOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION AWARD
for
CONTRIBUTIONS TO OBSERVATIONAL SEISMOLOGY

The Eastern Section of the Seismological Society of America requests nominations for the 29th Annual Jesuit Seismological Association Award for Contributions to Observational Seismology. The award honors outstanding contributions to observational seismology and may be given for one specific contribution or for contributions through the years. There are no restrictions on the recipients or achievements that can be nominated, but preference will be given to:

- Members of the Eastern Section
- Members of the Seismological Society of America
- Contributions to the understanding of seismology and/or seismotectonics in eastern North America

The recipient will be selected by an awards committee established by the Eastern Section. Nominations must be made by a member of the Eastern Section. Please send the nominee's name and a one-page rationale for the nomination along with your name, your agency/institute and its location, your telephone number and your e-mail address to ES-SSA Secretary Seth Carpenter (seth.carpenter@uky.edu). For more information about the award, please visit <http://www.seismosoc.org/inside/eastern-section/jsa-award> or the following video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1BsmHYTODZY>. Nominations received up to 15th May 2023 will be considered for this year's award.
